GILLAND'S IRIS GARDEN

La Junta, Colorado

Dear Friends:

Once again we are approaching the Iris season, and what a wonderful feeling it is. Old and new Iris will bloom in our garden, as we are constantly discarding and adding newer and better Iris each year, and right along with them will come old and new friends.

Perhaps this is ONE of our reasons for loving Iris as we do. In this hurry, hurry world of ours it is often difficult to find time for our friends, but when spring comes and our garden of Iris burst into a fairyland of rainbow colors, we know they will beckon in not only old friends but new friends as well; who will spend hours wandering through the garden or sitting in the shade discussing our favorite flower, "The Iris".

We assure you that every effort will be made to live up to your expectations; shipping only disease free, accurately named, and well developed rhizomes. Read our Guarantee elsewhere.

If, however, you have any complaints, about any shipments in 1956, we hope you will let us know about them. Because only by satisfying you can we expect to have you remain as a friend and customer.

Sincerely,

GILLAND'S IRIS GARDEN

THE PROPER TIME TO PLANT BEARDED IRIS

There is a definite dormant period of Iris rhizomes, and with us that period is July and August. From many experiments we find that planting Iris in these two months gives the best results and you are more certain to get bloom the next spring. Late planting will give you about the same increase, but blooming heavily is something else; so if you want blooms for certain, plant in July and August. In later plantings it is hard to get the plants well rooted to winter properly.

When rhizomes reach you, sometimes a fan or so on the rhizome will be dry: DO NOT PULL OFF THIS DRY FAN., as the wound will be a soft spot later and may cause the rhizome to pass out of the picture. These dry fans will shove off of their own accord later, as the rhizome grows.
